New Seasons Market Announces Hunger Relief Match, Benefiting 10 Local Nonprofits Fighting Food Insecurity

From May 17 through 23, neighborhood grocer commits to match up to $50,000 in customer donations

Portland, Ore. (May 8, 2023) – From May 17 through 23, New Seasons Market will host its annual Hunger Relief Match (previously known as Hunger Match Weekend) benefiting 10 local nonprofits fighting food insecurity. The Portland-based grocer will match up to $50,000 in customer donations throughout the week, ultimately doubling each dollar with the opportunity to give more than $100,000.

“Since we opened our doors 23 years ago, New Seasons Market has been committed to partnering with our customers and local organizations to support hunger-relief efforts in our communities,” said Jennifer Gregorich, Community Investment Program Supervisor. “We are so grateful to our generous customers, and to our dedicated partners for their continued commitment to creating greater food access. Together, we can amplify our impact and make a difference in the lives of our neighbors in need.”

The 10 beneficiaries of New Seasons Market’s Hunger Relief Match each address hunger and its root causes, and include:

- Share

“At Share, we believe that every person counts. We want to ensure that children, teens, women, men and senior citizens in our community have access to adequate, nutritious food,” said Kim Hash, Director of Development and Communication for Share. “With the help of volunteers and community partners, our staff annually distributes 84,150+ free hot meals annually, 1,250+ bags of weekend food for children during the school year, 12,500+ free summer meals to kids 18 and under, and 5,500+ food kits to neighbors who are living on the streets. Funding received from generous community members through the New Season’s Hunger Match helps to make these meals possible!”

While the Hunger Relief Match is a time when New Seasons Market will match dollars donated, many customers may not know that they can make gifts to nonprofits at the register year-round.
